DIALOGUE between an ITALIAN and an ENGLISHMAN, upon the Subject of the Scotiſh Rebellion, now flaming.

Pro Aris et Focis.

ITALIAN.

AND ſo, Sir, you will not be convinced that it is abſolutely neceſſary, for the Happineſs and Proſperity of Old England, that my Maſter, by the Arms of his gallant Son, ſhould be reſtored to his Dominions?

Engliſhman. No!——

I. Nor that you endanger the Health of your Souls by oppoſing him?

E. Quite the contrary; we ſhould endanger them if we did not oppoſe him:—— But ceaſe canting, and ſuffer me, in my Turn, to aſk you a Queſtion or two.

I. With all my Heart.

E. Firſt then, who is this preſumptuous young Man who diſturbs our Quiet, and endeavours to throw all Things into Confuſion here?

I. He is the Grandſon of your King James the Second, and lays Claim to theſe Kingdoms, in his Father's Name, by Hereditary Right.

E. Oh! the Grandſon of James the Second: It may be ſo, and if ſo it be, I have two very ſtrong Objections againſt his ever being King of England.

I. Name them.

E. The one is, if he is the Grandſon of King James the Second; and the other is, if he is not.

I. Very ſmart, Sir; but what ſay you to his Right by Heirſhip, which you know is indefeaſible?

E. I know it is not; I know it hath been laid aſide for two Ages at leaſt, and may be ſo for ever.——But pray, Sir, where was this deſperate mad Quixote born?

I. At Rome.

E. And bred?——

I. In a Jeſuit's College.

E. Do you think he imbibed his Principles of Government there?

I. No doubt on't.

E. Oblige me, and let me know what they are in general.

I. As to Kingſhip, they teach that Monarchs have an abſolute Dominion over the Lives and Properties of thoſe who have the Happineſs and Honour to be born their Subjects; that, by divine Ordination, theſe Subjects of theirs are to obey implicitly whatever they command, and this too, whether theſe Kings are Tyrants, Idiots, Bigots, or, in a Word, utterly incapable of the Uſe of Reaſon or Juſtice.

E. So;——theſe Principles muſt be very agreeable and endear him much to a free-born Engliſhman.

I. Such as ought to endear him to them; ſo truly Chriſtian and Orthodox, notwithſtanding your Sneer.

E. Let me inform you, Sir, we have not only long defended our Eſtabliſhment by our Swords, but we have ſtrengthened it likewiſe by repeated Laws; we have enjoy'd, and we do enjoy at preſent, thank Heaven, a reaſonable Share of Liberty, and our holy Religion pure and uninterrupted: Now, Sir, what Sort of Madmen does your Maſter take us to be, or rather Idiots, to think of exchanging the two greateſt Bleſſings Heaven can beſtow, pure Religion and Liberty, for the two greateſt Evils that can be inflicted on Mankind, Idolatry and Slavery?

I. But my Maſter aſſures you, and on his princely Word, that you ſhall enjoy your Lives, your Laws, your Religion, and your Property inviolable.

E. His princely Word is a leaden Shilling, it will not be current here; but, I ſuppoſe, by theſe wild Promiſes, which it is quite impoſſible for him to fulfill, he means to prove himſelf indubitably the Grandſon of James the Second: We remember how he kept his Word; Since that Time the whole Syſtem of our political Laws is againſt him; our Money Funds, particularly, (ah! how your Maſter longs to taſte thoſe Egyptian Fleſh-pots) were eſtabliſh'd to defeat this Claim of his to indefeaſible Hereditary Right. No, Sir, no; whatever Cant he makes uſe of, we know he is obliged in Honour, Intereſt, and Conſcience, to make uſe of a Spunge, a general Spunge.

I. Pho, pho, what idle Fancies!

E. Theſe are ſolid and unwarrantable Truths; and I will venture to propheſy, I ſhall ſee your Maſter, and his ragged Rout of Highland Beggars, ſpeeding in a Hurry North again by their Fears, and in much more Haſte than they were puſhed Southward by their Hopes. But, as I think ſome of the unhappy Men who follow him muſt loſe their Lives, and ſome of them (thoſe who have any) their Eſtates; what muſt your wild-brain'd Maſter think of all this? Does he believe no Account is to be given hereafter!

I. Ridiculous! the Pope, and the whole Conclave, have already taken care of all that;——there are Indulgences, &c.

E. Ridiculous indeed! Well, Sir, but he ſays (as I have heard) in his Manifeſto, that he depends entirely on the Affections of the People; and that he will make uſe of no foreign Aid, unleſs foreign Aid ſhall be brought to oppoſe him.

I. He does ſay ſo; is not this gracious and great?

E. Meer ſhuffling, groſs, jeſuitical, and falſe: He knows well that foreign Force muſt and will be brought againſt him; he knows our Allies are obliged to it by expreſs and repeated Stipulations in their public Treaties; nor had he ever ſet his Foot on this Iſland at all but for the French, the foreign Aid of Louis d'Ores: With thoſe he began his Invaſion; theſe tempted ſome half-ſtarved Beggars at firſt to throw up their Bonnets and huzza for him in Hopes to better their Food and Raiment.

I. Ah! Sir, did you but know this Gentleman, againſt whom you plead thus warmly:—He is handſome, generous, valiant, patient of Hunger, Thirſt, and Labour, and (as the common People ſay) no more Pride in him; he lies rough, eats rough, dreſſes rough like a Highlander.——Oh! he is a brave Prince; he is, for all the World, like Charles the Twelfth of Sweden.

E. Indeed!——you are ſtrangely unlucky, Sir, in your Alluſions; no Man in his Senſes ſure deſires to ſee a King of England like this ſame Charles the Twelfth of Sweden: Every one knows this Royal Madman threw great Part of the North into Confuſion; he was a Wildfire that for a while deſtroy'd all around him, 'till he burnt out; he ruined a whole People, he deſtroy'd almoſt all his Subjects, a very brave and warlike Race; nor could a long Captivity reduce him to Reaſon, 'till, at laſt, he receiv'd, by the Hand of Providence, the long expected Ball at Frederickſhall, by which Mankind were rid of a Tyrant;——and your Maſter is very like him it ſeems.——Pardon me, Sir, but (in my Opinion) you turn your Panegyric into Satire; and, like ſome weak Stomachs, make every Thing you ſwallow Vinegar by your own bad Digeſtion.

I. I tell you he is a ſecond Veſpaſian, deliciæ humani generis.

E. No more like him than I to Hercules: But, generally ſpeaking, theſe Purpurati Nebuloues (as Buchanan calls them) are the Scourges of Providence, and inflicted on the human Species for the Puniſhment of our Sins. Had this Charles the Twelfth been impregnated with your Eccleſiaſtical Italian Politics, had he ſuck'd in the Jeſuit's Doctrine in his Youth, like your Hero, he had been a compleat Tyrant.

I. How! what then according to you all the great Conquerors and Heroes, ſuch as Ceſar, Alexander, Guſtavus Adolphus, Lewis the 14th and 15th, are and were Tyrants?

E. And Robbers,——of the worſt Sort;——but we will come a little cloſer to you:——Let us ſuppoſe (which Heaven in his Mercy forbid) that this wild Scheme of your Maſter ſhould take Place, and he ſhould, by the Virtue of French Forces and of French Gold, force himſelf into Poſſeſſion of this, as he calls it, his indefeaſible hereditary Right, could he hold it under any other Title, tell me honeſtly, than as the Deputy of the King of France, ſay ingenuouſly, muſt he not be his Vice-Roy? Muſt not this his Acquiſition make all the good People of England become tributary Slaves to France? Muſt not Great-Britain and Ireland be look'd upon and treated as his other conquer'd Provinces? Muſt not your Hero wade to this mighty Honour thro' a Sea of Blood?

I. No, no; you ſhall ſee he will do the Work without French Forces or French Money.

E. Impoſſible! utterly impoſſible to be brought about by any other Means:——And yet ſhould it be by theſe Means perfected, after an immenſe Quantity of Blood and Treaſure hath been conſumed by his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to make this further important Step towards (what he calls) Univerſal Monarchy; all Europe, it is certain, will then be alarm'd and united in their Endeavours to refuſe the Yoke, to prevent and ſave themſelves from the worſt of Evils, Slavery. You may ſee, if you pleaſe, Sir, here in a clear Light, what muſt be, if you have the greateſt Succeſs, the Conſequence of this moſt iniquitous Project.——But I ſhall break off this Conference with the Words of a very learned and truly pious Divine ſome Years ago, when a like Attempt was made to overthrow our Religion and Laws, where, ſpeaking of our home-bred Party Diviſions——"It is (ſays that good Man) but too true that we "are very unhappy in our private Grudges [illegible] "another, and in our petty Diſtinctions a[illegible]

" but now all these are like small Rivulets to run into one of " the two great Rivers: We can be now but two Parties, " and no more:

" One for the Protestant Religion, and the English Con- " stitution;

" The other for Popery, and a French Government:

" This only is our Choice."

I. I find we differ toto Cœlo; after a Battle you will be more sensible of the Truth and Goodness of our Cause.

E. Heaven forbid we should be convinced that Way: I cd once see many of your Northern Gentry, on a former like Occasion, brought thro' our Streets in Captivity; and, I confess, I saw with Concern so many deluded Wretches about to pay the Pains due to Rebellion and Perjury. Another shew like this may not be far off: I wish your mad-cap Master would quit his Enterprize, and give his hair-brained Followers an Opportunity to petition for Mercy in Time. Adieu.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Sept. 24. The Rebels have demanded from this City 6000 Pairs of Shoes, 1000 Tents, and a proportional Number of Water Cantines, and 2000 Targets, for which Payment is promis'd when the present Troubles are ceas'd.

Sunday there was no Sermon in the Churches, the Ministers being generally out of Town.

Yesterday the Lord Provost visited the Officers who were made Prisoners, belonging to General Cope's Army.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Newcastle, Sept. 25. We are assured that three Colliers, from the East, met with two French Privateers off Flamborough Head, one of 14 and the other of eight Guns, which were just upon attacking a Pink; but the Colliers bore up to them, fought them, and rescued the Pink, without any other Damage on their Side than one of their Hands being shot through the Nose, but the Privateers lost a great Number of their Men, and were obliged to sheer off.

LONDON.

Whitehall, Sept. 28. The King has been pleased to send Orders to his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, to send over immediately eight Battalions, and also nine Squadrons of the British Troops, from the Army under his Royal Highness's Command, for the Defence and Security of his Majesty's Kingdoms.

Whitehall, Sept. 28. By Letters from Berwick of the 23d and 24th we are inform'd, that about five hundred of the Dragoons under Sir John Cope were then there; that some of the Foot had likewise got to that Place, and others were gone for Carlisle; and that La Roque's Regiment of Dutch Troops landed there on the 23d in the Morning. That the Rebels, after the late Action, lay for some Time at Dudingston and Musselburgh, near Edinburgh, and then returned to that City, since which there were no certain Accounts of their Motions. The following is the most exact List we have as yet received of the Officers kill'd and wounded in the late Action.

Guise's. Capt Pointz dangerously wounded, and Capt. Holwell kill'd.

Leigh's. Capt. Bremer and Capt. Rogers, both kill'd, and Lieutenant-Colonel Whiteford slightly wounded.

Besides the above List, there are several Officers Prisoners, whose Names are not yet known.

Whitehall, Sept. 28. By Advices of the 25th, receiv'd this Day, the main Body of the Rebels had not mov'd from Edinburgh on the 24th; and we hear that they are sending out Parties to press Horses.

Whitehall, October 1. This Day arrived Letters, dated Sept. 21, from Vice-Admiral Martin, who is cruizing off the Lizard with his Squadron; giving an Account, that he had been three Days cruizing off Brest, in Sight of which Port he took a small French Man of War; that there was then only the Elizabeth in Brest Water; but that it was said, there were nine large Ships in that Harbour.

His Majesty has been pleased to order a strong Body of Troops, consisting of several Battalions of Foot, and some Squadrons of Horse and Dragoons, to march directly to Scotland, under the Command of Field-Marshal Wade.

By Letters of the 28th of September, from Berwick, we are inform'd, that the main Body of the Rebels had not then moved from Edinburgh, but that they had sent Parties to Haddington and Dunbar.

In the Earl of Mar's Journal of the Rebellion in 1715, printed at Paris, there is the following Remark, which we hope will be verify'd on the present Occasion:

" Among many good Qualities, the Highlanders have " one unlucky Custom, not easy to be reformed; which " is, That generally after an Action they return Home: " Accordingly a great many went off after the late Battle " of Sheriff-muir."

It should be remember'd, that in this Battle of Sheriff-muir, or, as we call it, Dumblain, the Rebels pretended to Victory; and indisputably had it in their Right Wing and Center: Yet this was not sufficient to keep these Marauders together, after having once engaged their Enemy, which they thought was the whole Business they met about.

We are inform'd, that the Day after the King's Arrival, the Right Hon. the Earl of Clanrickard waited upon his Majesty, and offer'd to raise and maintain a Regiment of 1000 Gentlemen Volunteers, of which his Lordship is to be Colonel, which shall serve his Majesty during his Royal Pleasure; his Majesty has been graciously pleased to accept of his Lordship's Offer; and his Lordship, we hear, is to set out in a few Days to raise the Regiment. 'Tis allow'd by all that it will be the finest Regiment in Europe, as they are to be all Men of Fortune and Family.

We hear from York, that his Grace the Lord Archbishop of that Place has put on a Lay Military Habit, in order to spirit forward the Execution of what his Grace has so bravely and pathetically recommended in his Speech upon the Association there.

The Gentlemen of the County of York have already subscrib'd 90,000 l. for Arming, Cloathing, and Paying 4000 Men in Defence of his Majesty's Person and Government, and their own Religion, Liberties, and Properties, and have resolved to augment that Sum, if there should be Occasion. A great Number of Gentlemen Volunteers have also engaged to serve at their own Charge; among whom 1000 Horse are expected to be brought into the Field.

We hear that upwards of 300 young Gentlemen of the County of York have offered to serve as Voluntiers against the Rebels wherever his Majesty's Service shall require, and desire to be call'd the King's Royal Hunters: They mount themselves upon hunting Horses, and each take a Servant, whom they mount and arm also.

Thursday 7-Night the Nobility, Clergy, and Gentry of Lancashire assembled at the Town-Hall in Preston, and with the greatest Unanimity entered into an Association to raise immediately a Body of 3000 Men, for the Security of his Majesty's Person and Government. The Company were acquainted with the Occasion of the Meeting in an excellent Speech made by the Earl of Derby, and seconded by Mr. Bootle.

They write from Dunham Massey in Cheshire, the Seat of the Earl of Warrington, that his Lordship has furnish'd all his Tenants with Arms and Ammunition, who have signed their Names to be ready on the first Notice, to defend the Religion and Liberties of their Country.

'Tis said that the Right Hon. the Lord Herbert, who is beloved as a Father by his Tenants in Shropshire, has enlisted 5000 of them in the same Cause. Such a public Spirit must soon extinguish even the Hopes of the Domestic as well as Foreign Enemies of our envied Happiness.

On Friday 7-Night an Association was begun and carried on with great Spirit, by the Right Hon. the Lord Onslow, the Speaker of the House of Commons, and several other Gentlemen, to raise a Body of Men in the County of Surry, for the Service of his Majesty and the Nation.

Monday Warrants were sent to the Representatives in Parliament, and other Gentlemen of the Borough of Southwark, to impower them to raise Men for the Service of their King and Country.

A great Number of young Gentlemen have met at the Gun Tavern near the Meuse, and form'd themselves into a Regiment, which is to consist of ten Companies of 100 Men each, and is almost compleated, the Officers that are to command it are speedily to be appointed by his Majesty.

On Saturday last 600 of the Dutch Troops that were quartered about Wandsworth, Putney, and other Places adjacent, marched towards the North.

Monday a Draught of 216 Gunners, Bombardiers, and Matrosses was made from Woolwich, and sent away with a large Train of Artillery for the Forts and Castles in the West of England.

An Extra Guard of 70 Men belonging to the Foot-Guards, have received Orders to be under Arms at the Guard Room, Whitehall, Day and Night, in case of any Emergency.

We hear that Thursday next is certainly fix'd for the public Entry of the Venetian Ambassador.

On Saturday, the 28th of September last, as the Hon. James Annesley, Esq; and Daniel Mac Kercher, Esq; were coming through Hungerford in a Post-Chaise, the Chaise unluckily overturned; by which Accident Mr. Annesley receiv'd a Hurt upon his great Toe, and Mr. Mac Kercher was slightly bruis'd in his Shoulder.

Extract of a private Letter from Berwick, Sept. 25.

' There are some People come hither from Edinburgh, ' who left that City last Night; and they inform us, that ' the Rebels not only continue there still, but do not seem ' to make any Dispositions, that indicate a speedy Re- ' moval. On the contrary, they talk of waiting there for ' Reinforcements from the Highlands, and for the Foreign ' Succours they expect; so that there is no Sort of Cer- ' tainty with Respect to their Motions, which depend ' upon Events; which may, or may not happen, according ' to their Expectations. As to Government, they have ' established none, nor have they disturb'd the Inhabitants ' in the City, but in the principal Suburbs, the private ' Men have exercis'd their Faculty of pilfering pretty ' freely, though their Officers have laboured to prevent it. ' The Foot Soldiers taken in the late Action, are close Pri- ' soners, but the Officers are at Liberty upon their Parole. ' As for the Dragoons, they have managed Matters so, ' that very few of them are missing from hence; all our ' Wishes turn on seeing a sufficient Body of regular Troops ' marching this Way, to disperse this rebellious Rabble, ' that at present disturb the Peace of these Parts, and who ' do infinite Mischief to others, while they do little or no ' Good to themselves.

Extract of a Letter from Bury in Suffolk, Sept. 26.

' Sir William Gage, and some other Roman Catholics ' waited last Sunday on the Duke of Grafton at Euston- ' Hall, to assure his Grace of their peaceable Disposition, ' &c. at this Juncture; and the same Day the Deputy- ' Lieutenant of Suffolk dined with his Grace to receive ' his Instructions how to act at this critical Time. There ' are many Catholics about here, who are very quiet; and ' we have General Frampton's Regiment quartered among ' us. A few Days ago, as a Cart-load of Goods was ' carrying to the House of a Roman Catholic, the Coun- ' try People stopt them, and search'd to see if any Arms ' were concealed there, but not finding any, they suffered ' the Cart to pass on. Upon the whole, there seems ' to be a great Spirit in all these Parts, to oppose and ' prevent any Attacks upon this happy and glorious Consti- ' tution.

Tuesday about Two o'Clock, Part of the Treasure taken by the Prince Frederick and Duke Privateers, was brought to Town in 22 Waggons, guarded by the Sailors and a Party of Soldiers. And on Wednesday, about the same time, the remaining Part was brought from Kensington in 23 Waggons to the Tower.

'Tis reported that it will all be coined here as soon as possible.

Mr. Cox and Mr. Sparrow, Attorneys at Law, are appointed Under Sheriffs of this City for the Year ensuing.

Last Saturday Night a Fire broke out at Mr. Parton's, at Pendley Farm in the County of Bucks, which consum'd a great Quantity of Wheat, Peas, Hay, &c. before it could be extinguished.

On Saturday Morning last the House of Mr. Sparkes, a Haberdasher of Hats in Saville-Row, was broke open and robb'd of a Quantity of Hats to the Value of 30 l.

They write from Francfort, that the Ministers of the Electors of Brandenbourg and the Palatinate will be summoned to attend at the Coronation, and to perform their Offices of Great Chamberlain and Arch Treasurer; and in case they do not return, Proceedings will be immediately commenc'd against them in the Dyet.

It may not be amiss to observe, that the Title of Emperor was not anciently taken 'till the Prince who wore it was crowned at Rome; and tho' this Journey is now laid aside, yet the other Part of the Custom still prevails; and this Monarch, from the Time of his Election to his Coronation, is only stiled King of Germany, or of the Romans.

The Emperors formerly, when crowned in Germany, had that Ceremony usually perform'd at Aix la Chapelle, by the Elector of Cologne, for the Sake, not only of using the same Crown, but of being placed on the very Throne of Charles the Great; but this Custom is now left off, and the Magistracy of Aix la Chapelle carry the Regalia to that City which the Dyet of Election fixes upon for the Emperor's Coronation.

Private Letters lately come from the Army under his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland in Flanders, give an Account, that tho' most of the Inhabitants of Ghent and Bruges were in the French Interest, they now own a Difference between their Garrison, and an English one, by several Invasions on their Rights and Liberties. The Governor of Bruges, immediately after he entered there, sent for the Magiſtrates, and told them in a polite Manner, Proviſions were ſo very dear, his Officers and Soldiers could not live, and requeſted them to lower their Price; but they remonſtrated, that more was not exacted of them than was uſually paid by all without Diſtinction; which not being ſatisfactory to the Governor, he ordered that no Body ſhould preſume to take more than two Thirds of the Price for Meat, which it was then ſold for; and among other Things of the ſame Sort, liking the Fish-Market, which was kept in a handſome Square in the Middle of the City, he gentcely told them, There were fitter Places for it, he could depend on their Civility in letting him have it for himſelf and his Officers; and by his abſolute Authority immediately mov'd it to a remote Part of the City. It is further ſaid, that the French Officers were very licentious in their Quarters —By this Behaviour may be ſeen, the unhappy Fate of thoſe who ſubmit to and encourage the French, the moſt perfidious and cruel of all Nations in the World.

We are aſſur'd, by Letters from Deal, that the French are actually embarking a conſiderable Number of Troops at Dunkirk; and at the ſame Time mention, that they have not any Men of War in that Port to convoy them: But if they have, we make no doubt the ever-vigilant Vernon will be able to give a good Account of the Tranſactions at Dunkirk.

Orders are ſent for the Devonſhire, Capt. Knowles, of 80 Guns, at the Galleons, the Prince Edward of 40, and Syren of 24 Guns, both at Deptford, to join Admiral Vernon with all Expedition.

The Vine Galley, Harcourt, from New-England for the Leeward Iſlands, is carried into Hiſpaniola by a Spaniſh Privateer of 20 Carriage Guns and 14 Swivels.

The Union, Capt. Paul, from Ireland with Proviſions, &c. for the Weſt-Indies, is loſt near the Maderas; the Captain and part of the Crew were ſav'd.

'I returned Yeſterday from Edinburgh, whither I was 'ſent to ſee how Affairs ſtood with the Rebels. This I 'can affirm, that during my ſhort Stay in that City, 800 'of the Highlanders left the young Chevalier, and retir'd 'to their native Mountains. The remaining 4000 are ex'ceeding ſhabby; and I was told, that their Mock-King 'is now ſo highly diſguſted, that he declar'd, that if thoſe 'Perſons who had invited him, did not perform their 'Engagements immediately, he would ſend up their Names 'to London, and make the beſt Retreat for himſelf he 'could. Depend upon it, no Perſon of Eminence has 'joined him.

Extract of a private Letter from Durham, dated Sept. 29.

'Edinburgh is ſtill in the Hands of the Rebels, the 'Caſtle ſtill holds out, and 'tis morally impoſſible they 'ſhould take it without Treachery, which I hope we 'need not fear. They hang'd a Serjeant there the other 'Day, for holding a Correſpondence with the Pretender. 'Newcaſtle continues to make all the Preparations poſſible 'for a vigorous Defence. The Mayor (to his Honour be 'it ſpoken) has ſhewn himſelf a real Friend to Liberty, 'his King and Country. Two Spies were taken up Yeſ'terday at Newcaſtle. On one of them were found Letters 'of great Conſequence. The Fellow has ſince cut his 'Throat; tho' it is hop'd he will recover, the Wound 'being immediately ſew'd up, and all poſſible Care taken 'to ſave him. He refuſes to make any Diſcovery, but it 'is hoped he will ſoon be brought to make ſome of the 'greateſt Conſequence.

Brigadier-General Powlett, and ſeveral other Officers, are ſet out for Sherwood-Foreſt in Nottinghamſhire, where 10,000 Men are to aſſemble and incamp, and are to march from thence to Scotland.

The Expedition, Capt. Ruſſel, from Boſton in New-England, brings Letters from thence, dated the 28th of Auguſt, giving an Account, that two French Eaſt-India Ships, richly laden, homeward-bound, and the Notre Dame Deliverance, being the third Ship from the South-Seas, that eſcap'd from the Duke and Prince Frederic Privateers, were all put into Cape Breton, not knowing it was in the Poſſeſſion of the Engliſh. And by Letters found on board the two firſt, it appear'd that four more Ships from the Indies were ſoon expected to ſhare the ſame Fate; ſo that this Iſland will, 'tis hop'd, prove a good Ship-Trap.

The Recovery, Cheſhire, of Liverpool, from Guiney for Jamaica, is taken by two Spaniſh Men of War, and carried to the Carraccas.

They write from Liverpool, of the 28th of September, that they were raiſing a Regiment to conſiſt of 1000 Men; that 700 had then liſted, and others were hourly entering; ſo that they expected to have it completed in a few Days: That the Corporation had given 1000 l. and the Merchants had engaged to make good what more might be wanting, and to continue them ſo long as the Service of our King and Country might require. They add, that they were ſo intent upon the bringing this Affair into immediate Execution, that all manner of Buſineſs was laid aſide.

On Monday ſeveral Perſons was taken up at the Artillery Ground, for refuſing to take the Oaths.

By a Mail arrived Thurſday from Liſbon, there is Advice, that the Tygris Privateer of Dartmouth, Capt. Bonner, had taken, and carried to Liſbon, a large French Ship call'd the Eagle, of 30 Guns, and 150 Men, bound from St. Malo's for Cadiz laden chiefly with Linnen, whoſe Cargo is ſaid to be worth upwards of 40,000 l. Sterling.

A great Number of Hands are employ'd at Sheerneſs, in raiſing a ſtrong Battery there.

Laſt Week the Miſtreſs of the Public Houſe near St. George's Fields, known by the Sign of the King and Queen, going to the Neceſſary, the Seat fell in, and ſhe was loſt.

The Sixteenth Edition of

ONANIA: Or, The Heinous Sin of Self-Pollution, and all its frightful Conſequences (in both Sexes) conſidered, with Spiritual and Phiſical Advice to thoſe who have already injured themſelves by this abominable Practice.

As alſo the SIXTH EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to it, both of them Reviſed and Enlarged, and now printed together in One Volume.

And as the ſeveral Paſſages in the former Impreſſions, that have been charged with being obſcure and ambiguous, are in theſe clear'd up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

Theſe Editions contain ſome further and ſurprizing Inſtances of the Miſchiefs by that filthy, ſinful Commerce with ones ſelf, which is ſo notoriouſly practiſed, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weakning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inſerted, ſhew.

And, amongſt others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Anſwer to it, concerning the Uſe and Abuſe of the Marriage Bed; together with diver Caſuiſtical and other Letters from both Sexes, of ſome ſecret unnatural Effeminacies, neceſſary to be known both by the married and ſingle of each Sex. To which is added,

A Curious PIECE tranſlated out of the Latin, from L. S SCHMEDIER, as it is inſerted in the Acta Lipſienſia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Maſs of Blood; well worth the Peruſal of Phyſicians, Surgeons, Anatomiſts, and all others of Art and Curioſity.

As alſo Dr QUINCY's Tranſlation of Dr CARR's remarkable Anſwer to a Letter ſent by a Divine, concerning two Nuns in Rome, reported to have changed their Sex.

Likewiſe Dr. DRAKE's and ſeveral other Phyſicians Opinions of Hermaphrodites, and Women brought to a Reſemblance of them, by the Practice of Self-Pollution, as was the Caſe of a young Lady of 18, whoſe well-wrote Letter to the Author, deſcribing and lamenting her Condition, is (in order to deter others) inſerted.

A very grave and learned Divine and Phyſician having peruſed this Diſcourſe, before it went to the Preſs, returned it with his Opinion of it in theſe Words.

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, 'of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profeſſion, or Condition 'ſoever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed againſt in it.'

Is now ſold (Mr ISTED, Bookſeller, at the Golden Ball, in Fleetſtreet being dead) by CHARLES CORBETT, Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleetſtreet, and by HENRY COOK under the Royal Exchange. Price Bound 3 s. 6 d.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Strangurites, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the aboveſaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicine, were preſcrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an obſtinate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Boluſſes, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Intertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, exceſſive Coition, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s. 6 d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Reapſe, even in the tenderſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son in Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops, and paying 3 s. 6 d.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Diſeaſe the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the higheſt or moſt inveterate Degree, or of ever ſo many Years ſtanding, and that without any inſenſible Evacuation, or the leaſt Purging, which, by an unaccountable Miſtake, is Generally adviſed, altho' always found rather to encreaſe and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the leaſt Trouble, Confinement, or any Diſorder whatever, do at once ſtrike at the true Cauſe of the Scurvy, and entirely deſtroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, ſo as never to return again, as many Thouſands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almoſt inſtantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, ſweeten all the Fluids, cleanſe them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Pimples, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakneſs of the Limbs, languid Heavineſs of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakneſs of the Back, and all the vaſt Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatiſm, and many other Diſtempers.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, (whence proceed Head-Aches, Vapours, and other Indiſpoſitions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inſomuch that beſides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearance they ſpeedily and directly cure the Green-Sickneſs in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almoſt all other Chronick Diſeaſes, which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diſeaſes.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reſtorative, ſtrengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as ſoon as taken, make the Patient pleaſantly lightſome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Perſons, to preſerve as well as to procure a ſound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation theſe ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Eminence, for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy and agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, ſome under the ſame, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be ſure to have the Right, which, by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewomen's at the two blue Poſts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Dr. R. NELSON, being well known to have made the Cure of Seminal and Genital Imbecilities his chief Study and Practice for above thirty Years, does recommend his moſt Noble Cleanſing and Strengthning ELIXIR, which thouſands of People have experienced, to be the only BALSAMICK HEALING RESTORING Medicine in the World,

For Gleets and Weakneſſes,

THE Bane of Virility in the one Sex, and Deſtroyer of Fertility in the other, whether from ill cur'd Venereal Infections (than which nothing is more common) or from inordinate Coition, or Self-Pollution (that curſed School Wickedneſs, which ſpoils all our Youth, by nipping their Manhood in the Bud) or from involuntary Emiſſions a Nights in the Sleep, or in the Day Time upon Stool or with the Urine, or from Falls, Blows, Strains, Wrenches, or the like, which drain and dry up the Seminals, and wither, as it were the Generative Faculties, cauſing Impotency in Men, the Fluor Albus, and Barrenneſs in Women, (or but a weakly, ſickly Offspring if any) and in the long Run (by impoveriſhing the Blood and Spirits) Melancholy, Vapours, Decays of Nature, and Conſumptions.

No Medicine can be more pleaſant to take, nor any Thing upon Earth more effectual for the Purpoſe; for let the Imbecility be ever ſo great, or of ever ſo long ſtanding, and be either in the Parts Spermatick Veſſels, or Back, with Pain, or without, it certainly Cures, by reviving and enriching the Blood and Spirits, comforting, nouriſhing, and replenithing the Reins and Seminals, and ſtrengthning, and reſtoring the Genital Parts in both Sexes, how much ſoever weakned, rendred cold, or deadned, and bringing them to their natural Force, Warmth, and Vigour, by thickening and fertilizing the Seed, which before was thin, wateriſh, or yellowiſh, and conſequently inſufficient, either for Procreation or the Act of it.

All Diſorders of the Urine, as Difficulty in the making or retaining it, or its dribling away, hot or ſmarting, or foul, ſlimy, thready, gravely or ſtinking, whether from Gravel, Stone, Scrangury, or a Venereal Cauſe are likewiſe ſpeedily cured by it, and the Water made to be held as ſtringly, and yet brought away as freely, eaſily, full ſtream'd, and clear as ever.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible CURE in the Univerſe for the Venereal Diſeaſe from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and ſo as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet, or Weakneſs, to happen on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breakings-out, and all other the moſt exaſperated Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this ſome Thouſands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſhed, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury may, by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and moſt effectual Manner.

All ſuch, likewiſe, as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doſes of it, entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulneſſes of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this moſt noble Anti-Siphylicon is but ſix Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient, in moſt Caſes, to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which all Perſons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Phyſicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes whether occaſion'd by too ſevere purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Poluitio ſui, or any other Cauſe whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Conſequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain ſince they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous Syſtem, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorſalis, or Conſumpiton of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Conſumptions which frequently terminate in Death itſelf.

All ſuch therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old ſtubborn Gleets, Seminal Effuſions, Involuntary Emiſſions, exceſſive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakneſs of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtleſs be glad to meet with a certain, ſafe and ſpeedy Cure, which they may aſſuredly may, by the taking only a ſmall Quantity of a tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary, now publiſhed for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the moſt ſtubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Diſſiculty or Trouble; as alſo all other Weakneſſes of the Back, Reins, Seminal Veſſels and Urinary Paſſages, which it almoſt inſtantly cures, bringing to rights and reſtoring all thoſe Parts and Paſſages to their natural Tone and priſtine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doſes of it only.

This tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary is neither diſagreeable to take, nor occaſions the leaſt Diſorder, but is a wonderful Reſtorative in all Weakneſs and Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, and particularly ſtrengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Veſſels, to an immenſe Degree, inſomuch that in any Debility of them, one Doſe of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Perſons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weakneſſes of any Sort, or Weakneſſes of the Urinary Veſſels, who take it, will in three Days time find it ſo very effectual, that they will be moſt agreeably ſurpriſed at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accompliſh ſuch a ſafe, ſpeedy and perfect Cure of ſuch difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be ſaid in Praiſe of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the abovemention'd Purpoſes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its abſolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh a Cure, worth ten time, as much, and by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, which whomſoever carefully reads will be complete Maſter of his own Caſe, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakneſs he is afflicted with ſucceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Diſeaſe is intirely extirpated or not.

PARALYTICON SEU ANIMA NERVORUM:

A ſtupendous Chymical Eſſence which infallibly cures the PALSY and all other Nervous Diſeaſes.

THE very firſt Doſe of it (a few Drops only) inſtantly penetrates the inmoſt Receſſes of the minuteſt Nerves, and darting all moſt as quick as Lightning through the whole human Syſtem, diffuſes kindly Warmth and genial Comfort to the weaken'd Limbs, and all Parts of the Body, and affords immediate ſenſible Relief in the moſt obſtinate Palſy, and all Paralytick Affects, Shaking, Trembling, Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and Weakneſs, whether univerſal, or of particular Parts only, or whether lately contracted, or of many Years Continuance.

And as the very firſt Doſe makes an apparent demonſtrable Amendment, ſo the continuing it for a ſhort Time, as ſurely accompliſhes a perfect Cure, not only of the moſt grievous Palſy or Reſolution of the Sinews, but alſo of their Cramp-like Contractions, ſhrinking of the Nerves, and all other nervous Complaints whatever, and than it Perſons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether occaſioned by preceeding Illneſſes, faſt Living, hard Drinking, long Courſes of Phyſick, great Colds, or exceſſive Fatigues either of Mind or Body.

Words cannot ſufficiently expreſs the uncommon, the unparallel'd Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who take it, frankly acknowledge; and its vaſtly ſuperior Excellency to all other Remedies, may be more ſecurely rely'd on, for the abſolute Cure of the Palſy, and all Paralytick Affects, and Nervous Indiſpoſitions, than the celebrated Cortex is for Intermittents.

It rectifies all Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, creates an Appetite procures a good Digeſtion, enriches the Blood, reſtores the natural Vigour and ſteady Uſe of the Limbs, and ſtrengthens the enfeebled Joints, Muſcles, Tendons, Ligaments and whole Habit to an immenſe Degree. It is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.
